

Berkeley Asphalt in the Oceanview District is asking for a new permit request. Over the past years, neighbors have brought complaints against the company for not following their permits and allowing poisonous sulfur admission to escape especially dangerous to small children and infirmed adults. You have a chance to comment on Berkeley Asphalt's latest permit request. Use this url <https://www.baaqmd.gov/permits/public-notices/permit-applications-received>.

Filter for Berkeley, or go to new permits on 7/10/2020.

Comments can be left by clicking on the blue "UPDATE" button on the right till 9/10/2020.